

DONALD F. MCHENRY FELLOWSHIP
Application Form

Donald F. McHenry, a former U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations and a 1957 graduate of Illinois State University, attributed much of the success in his diplomatic career to his experience at Illinois State. While a student, McHenry strengthened his communication skills and deepened his understanding of the great issues that helped him so ably serve the United States as Ambassador to the United Nations. Dr. McHenry participated in many student activities, including the student chapter of the NAACP, theater productions, the student radio station, and the debate team which he captained in 1956, the same year he was named Outstanding Debater at Illinois State and in the United States. Dr. McHenry also cites Illinois State as a place where he made lifelong friends. Illinois State provides many of its graduates with experiences that influence the rest of their lives.

Eligibility: Applicants must be admitted into an Illinois State University graduate degree program, attend on a full-time basis, and demonstrate financial need. Students will need to demonstrate their leadership and academic potential, as well as their commitment to equity, diversity, and inclusion.

Terms: The stipend for the Fellowship is $3,000. A tuition waiver for the academic year (two semesters) will also be provided. Priority in selection will be given to first year students. The McHenry Fellowship recipient may also accept a graduate assistantship if one is awarded by the academic department. Receipt of this award may impact other financial aid that a student receives. Awards will be announced by April 15.

Instructions: There are three sections to this application. Read and complete all sections of the application. Submit application and supporting materials no later than March 15. (If this date falls on a weekend, the Monday after the 15th will be the due date.)
