

GRADUATE FACULTY MEMBERSHIP

DEPARTMENT/SCHOOL OF : SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK

DATE : JULY 11, 2002

DEPARTMENT/SCHOOL CRITERIA

As of May 10, 2002 all nominees for full graduate faculty membership in the School of Social Work must hold a doctoral level degree in social work or related or relevant field. It is expected that they be pursuing research and professional activity that results in submission and acceptance of grant proposals, manuscripts for publication, and papers for presentation at conferences.

Nominees for full graduate faculty membership status in the School must have demonstrated effective teaching at the graduate level. They are expected to be sensitive to student learning needs and be receptive to methods of monitoring teaching styles and techniques and to use available resources to make improvements in their instructional practices.

Nominees for full graduate faculty membership status must be pursuing a line of service activity that is seen as valuable to the School, College, University, and the profession of social work. Service activity includes participation in a variety of committees and projects related to the aforementioned entities.

DEPARTMENT/SCHOOL PROCEDURES FOR NOMINATIONS

Full Member Status Nominations for current faculty will be made by the Schools Faculty Status Committee and forwarded to the Graduate Council Membership Committee.
