1 (D7) Schroeder Hall: Department of Sociology & Anthropology Panel Presentations 11:15 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. Room 396

To find Schroeder Hall from the Bone Student Center, take the elevator or stairs to the second floor of the Center. Use the construction detour located at the southeast side of the building to exit. After exiting the building, go east to the pedestrian bridge and turn right (south) and cross the bridge. Schroeder Hall is the first building on the right (west).
DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY & ANTHROPOLOGY

Panel Presentations (April 5, 2019)
Organizers: Drs. Logan Miller and Liv Stone
Schroeder Hall 396
11:15 a.m. — 1:00 p.m.

*****************************************************************************************************************************

Undergraduate Presenters

11:15-11:30
Alexa Parker
GENDERED SPEECH IN OLD ENGLISH FEMALE SAINTS' LIVES: A LINGUISTIC EXAMINATION

11:30-11:45
Discussion Period

11:45-12:00
Gwendolyn Allen
JAPANESE MYTHOS: HOW STORIES CAN AFFECT A SOCIETY’S BEHAVIOR AND IDENTITY

12:00-12:15
Tyler Smith

12:30-12:45
Sidney Weth
SEX TRAFFICKING

12:45-1:00
Discussion Period

*****************************************************************************************************************************