To find Centennial West from the Bone Student Center, take the elevator or stairs to the second floor. Go east (left) to exit the building using the southeast exit. After exiting the building, cross the pedestrian bridge (south of building). Centennial West is the last building at the southeast end of the quad.
SCHOOL OF THEATRE & DANCE
Oral Presentations
Organized by Drs. Ann Haugo and Kee-Yoon Nahm
Centennial West, Room 302
2:00 - 4:45 p.m.

Panel 1
2:00 - 3:15 p.m.

Demetri Corbin, “The Lost Art Generation: The Effects of the 2008 Financial Crisis on Arts Education”

Shahrzad Hamzeh, “Belly Dancing and the Forgotten History of Persian Dance”

Hope Morris, “Bewitching the Blame: The Crucible’s Legacy of Sexual Shame and Cultural Othering in Popular Culture”

Break
3:15 - 3:30 p.m.

Panel 2
3:30 - 4:45 p.m.

Cheyenne Flores, “Virgin Whore, or Neutered: Applying Chicana Feminist Thought to the Women of El Teatro Campesino”

Shahrzad Hamzeh, “Shalwar Kameez: Pakistan’s Persian-influenced National Garment”

Samuel Langellier, “Lost Plays and the Issue of Primary Text in Theatre”